WILLS $18,000 ESTATE TO HIS STENOGRAPHER

Lawyer Rewards Woman for 21 Years' Work

As a token of appreciation of her efficiency, Miss Agnes L. Coyle, twentyone years secretary and stenographer for Thomas Bracken, a lawyer, will receive all of his estate, valued at $18,000.
Mr. Bracken's will was filed in the Surrogate's Court yesterday.
Miss Coyle, who lives at 120 Mercer

A curriculum will be reported by a committée appointed at to-day's meeting, and after being approved by the war Department will be put in effect in scores of institutions that have applied for militare instruction. The committee is composed of Major John K. Kingman, Dr. Lowell, chairman: Edward W. Nichols, superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute; the Rev. Edward Pace, Catholic University of America; Henry S. Drinker, president of Lehigh; William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University, and George E. Vincent, president of Lehigh; William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University, and George E. Vincent, president of Lehigh; William O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University, and George E. Vincent, president of the University of Minnesota.

The curriculum will be drafted to cover such subjects as are known to junior army officers, and will exempt graduates of such institutions from the necessity of taking the regular army examination in order to obtain commissions as reserve officers. It will be made effective when completed by a general order issued by the Secretary of War. Many other educational institutions are expected to install military training courses later.
